

HON. JESSE N. ELLERTSON, mayor of the City of Provo, is a native son of Utah and a very alert and progressive business man whose career has included a number of interesting activities and, being still a comparatively young man, much more is expected of him.

He was born at Mona, Utah, September 18, 1889, son of N. W. and Melissa M. (Green) Ellertson. His father came to Utah in 1855 and was one of the pioneers of the church at Mona. He was a rancher by occupation and for four years held the office of county commissioner. He died January 10, 1930.

Jesse N. Ellertson had a liberal and a practical education, learning the habits of industry as well as the lessons of books. He

ELLERTSON, Jesse N., mayor; b. Mona, Utah, Sept. 18, 1889; s. Norman W. and Melissa (Green) E.; ed. B.Y.U., Provo; B.S., U.S.A. Coll., 1914. m. Mamie E. Munro of Logan, Utah, Aug., 1915, in Salt Lake Temple; c. Florence (sdnt. Provo H.S.), Jean Keith E. (sdnt. B.Y.U. Trng. Sch.). Clerk, Carbon Co. Sch. Dist., 1918-19; pres. and mgr., Jones Abstract Co., 1920-28; vice pres., Intermt. Title & Guarantee Co., 1928—; mayor of Pro-

Ut. Disting. Pers

92

vo, 1930—. Mem. Phi Kappa Iota, Provo C. of C., Kiwanis Club. Latter-day Saint. Office: 59 E. Center St. Home: 145 N. 100 E.—

